Compassion Fatigue in Primary Care

Speaker:

Wylie Martin, MS, LPC-S

Licensed Professional Counselor / CPAN Behavioral Health Specialist
Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Medicine
The University of Texas at Tyler Health Science Center

OBJECTIVES:

At the end of this presentation, participants should have increased information to define compassion fatigue, examine the effects of compassion fatigue on helping professions and those they serve and develop a strategy to combat and address personal compassion fatigue.

This series is designed for physicians, residents and medical students and is available to other healthcare professionals with an interest in the program being presented.

The University of Texas at Tyler Health Science Center is accredited by the Texas Medical Association to provide continuing medical education for physicians.
